PUBLIC NOTICE

The Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU) will perform a Year Seven Comprehensive Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness accreditation visit to Little Big Horn College (LBHC) on September 30 – October 2, 2024. An NWCCU evaluation team will be meeting with students, faculty, staff and LBHC Board of Trustees. The purpose of the visit is to evaluate LBHC's compliance with NWCCU accreditation standards and policies.

Prior to this evaluation visit, members of the public may provide comment on LBHC's qualifications for accreditation. To be considered, all comments must be signed and delivered to NWCCU at least ten days prior to the start of the visit (September 30, 2024). Comments should be addressed to:

Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities
8060 165th Ave NE, Ste 200
Redmond, WA 98502

LBHC is currently accredited through NWCCU and last had its accreditation reaffirmed in 2017. In 2018, LBHC completed its Year One Evaluation of the current accreditation cycle. It completed its Mid-Cycle Evaluation in 2020. In 2023, LBHC underwent its Year Six Standard 2 – Policies, Regulations, and Financial Review (PRFR). LBHC's Year Seven Self-Evaluation Report will be submitted to NWCCU in end July 2024. The report will be available on LBHC's website prior to the September 2024 evaluation visit.

This announcement is being sent per requirements of NWCCU Policy- Public Notification and Third-Party Comments Regarding Year Seven Evaluations. More information can be found at the NWCCU website (<https://nwccu.org/>) or by contacting NWCCU directly using the contact information provided in this notice.
